

RDG 457 Literacy Technology Tool Exploration rubric

Due Date:	Points Possible	Points Received
	15

Name of Technology Tool:

CATEGORY	2	1
Student Needs That Might be Addressed by the technology tool	Learner description includes specific needs and educational support ideas.	Learner description does not match tool feature focus.
Technical Info About Products in General	Technical information is accurate and complete	Technical information is not accurate
Use in addressing access to curriculum standards, particularly to support literacy needs. Identify the essential components of reading and/or writing instruction that this tool might support.	Add curriculum alignment that might be addressed when using the products. How tool can be used to support reading and or writing instruction and support is identified.	Description is about the tasks that the learner is unable to do.
Features that Match Learner(s) Needs	Features listed describe how learner needs might be accommodated	List of features does not match learner needs
Comments about Company's Website	Comments include additional resources or other materials that are available to support	Comments about the web site are about products only.
Fact Finding Process	Describe how information was collected.	Information gathering process not discussed.
Installation of Software or App	Software/app independently selected, installed and troubleshooted.	Software may not have been fully or correctly installed, support needed in process.
Sharing/Presentation		Key information about selected tool was successfully shared with peers.